

European Union Expo Osaka 2025

Uniform Competition
Eligibility Criteria

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible to participate in the EU Pavilion uniform design competition, applicants must:

1. Be a citizen and resident of an EU Member State

The competition is only open to those residing in an EU Member State and who are citizens of an EU Member State.

2. Be under 35 years of age

The EU aims to support younger designers and afford them an opportunity to receive international recognition for their work.

3. Have at least completed a two-year undergraduate programme in a fashion-related field or be enrolled in one at the time of their application

Applicants must have studied (or be studying) at a recognised institution within the EU.

4. Have contributed to at least one commercial fashion project within the past two years

Examples of such projects include clothing collections, runway shows, and photo shoots. Reference letters or media mentions must be provided to substantiate such experience.

ENTRY OF DESIGNS INTO THE COMPETITION CONSTITUTES ACCEPTANCE OF THE GUIDELINES AND COMPETITION RULES BY THE ENTITY SUBMITTING THE ENTRY, VOID WHERE RESTRICTED OR PROHIBITED BY LAW.
